

Reflexive Pronouns

Reflexive pronouns refer back to the subject in the sentence.

For example:

Annie read the book silently to herself.

In this sentence, herself is referring to Annie, so herself is the reflexive pronoun in the sentence.

Directions: In the sentences below, underline the subject in the sentence and circle the reflexive pronoun.

1. I finished my homework all by myself.
2. You can make lemonade for yourself.
3. Charlie accidentally cut himself.
4. We made popcorn for ourselves to eat.
5. They cannot help themselves.
6. I emailed myself a copy of my work.
7. Sarah read the paper to herself out loud.
8. The kitten groomed itself.
9. Shane and Kelly bought themselves a new pair of shoes.

Below, circle the correct reflexive pronoun for each sentence.

10. Maria bought a dress for _____.

himself

herself

ourselves

11. Adam emailed _____ a copy of his work.

myself

herself

himself

12. They read the book to _____ quietly.

ourselves

themselves

itself